_____ drivers license number _____ and 28 years of age, I appear in front

That on the 12th of March 2002, at or about 10:45 in the morning information was received by the patrol car in reference to an aggression in progress with a none fire arm weapon in the interior of dock number 9 on the Fernandes Juncos Ave, in San Juan.

That on arriving in the patrol car properly marked and in uniform, I observed an individual with black skin, gray (or white?) hair; mustache and beard, who, while walking towards me, told me "that I (he?) had stabbed him in self-defense".

Immediately, he was placed under arrest and simultaneously, he was read the required warnings (Miranda rights?).

Subsequently I checked the inside of dock 9 and was able to observe in the interior of a fishing boat with registry # 669872, named Eagle Eyed Fishing, Corp., an individual laid out and in the interior of the hatch, who was bleeding profusely and was being assisted by Mr. Marco Henrique Williams, who immediately shouted that he was dead. After that I was able to observe that the individual with white skin, light hair, male, of approximately 41 years of age, was dead upon checking his vital signs.

The prosecutor Fleming Castillo Alfaro arrived on the scene and took charge of the investigation of the aforementioned scene together with the homicide agents. The individual with black skin, who was detained and arrested initially, was found to be called Kevin Charles Dillon AKA Jerome and the dead man was found to be called Danny Tyson Wright.

Initially Mr. Kevin Charles Dillon said that the fight that brought about this incident, was about questions over the duties on the fishing boat and it was Mr. Danny Tyson who had the knife at all times until the struggle began and he then took it away injuring Mr. Danny Tyson, in self-defense.

Later on, he offered various contradictory versions of what happened.
